

V International Conference of Young Scientists and Experts dedicated to the memory of Academician A.P. Karpinsky

Conference Venue

The conference will take place in one of the historic districts of St. Petersburg - on Vasilyevsky Island. It is here that by decree of Peter I the first scientific institution of Russia - Curiosities was organized. In subsequent years, Vasilyevsky Island became the scientific center of St. Petersburg - it houses the Imperial (Petersburg) Academy of Sciences (now St. Petersburg Scientific Center of RAS), St. Petersburg State University, Saint Petersburg Mining University and others. In 1882, the building for the country's geological survey - GeolCom (now FGBU "VSEGEI") was founded on Vasilyevsky Island.

Today, St. Petersburg is one of the most unique cities in Russia, which harmoniously combines high academic achievements in various fields of science and their practical implementation. Numerous geological institutions performing research and production work on the basic directions of geological study, involving an arsenal of modern methods and energy of young professionals to problem solving, are concentrated here.
